RAILROAD MEETING AT WINCHESTER, VA.
The stockholders of the Winchester and Potomac railroad, convened in general meeting on Saturday last, for the purpose of reorganizing the road, by the election of a president and directors for the ensuing year. The Winchester Times has the following account of the proceedings:

Hon. Pott. V. Conrad, who had been acting for sometime, by appointment of the late board of directors, as their president, submitted a report of the present condition and the true prospects of the company, which was one of great interest, and which was received and adopted by the unanimous vote of the stockholders.
Several resolutions were then proposed by Mr.
Duer, of Baltimore, representing many of the stockholders residing in that city, the leading objects of which were a reduction of the expenses of the company, to conform to the changed condition of its affairs, which were adopted.

Mr. Andrew Hunter, of Charlestown, offered a resolution, which was adopted, declaring it to be the true policy of the Winchester and Potomac railroad company, to encourage a connection between their road and the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire railroad, at some point at or near Harper's Ferry. The company then proceeded to the election of a president and directors.

Mr. Hunter nominated for the office of president Mr. Joseph H. Sherrard, of Winchester, who was elected without opposition. The following gentlemen were then elected directors on the part of the stockholders, to wit: Robt.
Y. Conrad, Wm. B. Baker, Philip Williams and Jno. F. Wall, who with Edward E. Cooke, Dr. Daniel Conrad and Col. Oliver R. Funsten, directors appointed on the part of the State, constitute the present board.

We learn that it is the purpose of the new board to take immediate measures for the completion of the road from Stephenson's depot to Winchester, and an application is now pending before the Legislature for a charter authorizing the extension of their road to Strasburg, to a connection with the Manassas Gap road at that point.

DIFFICULTY IN RICHMOND.
RICHMOND, January 5.—An exchange of pistol shots took place to-day, at 2 P. M., in the hall of the capitol, between Henry Rives Pollard of the Examiner, and Nat Tyler and Wm. D. Coleman of the Enquirer. Six shots were fired without occasioning any damage beyond knocking off half the tassel on the cane of the marble statue of Washington. The House of Delegates was in session at the time of the occurrence. It produced great excitement. The parties were arrested by the sergeant-at-arms and brought to the bar of the House, and pending the discussion of a motion to refer the matter to a committee, the House adjourned until to-morrow. The difficulty originated by an article which appeared in the Examiner on public printing, to which the Enquirer replied by calling on the former to name the person referred to or stand convicted of falsehood. The Examiner made no editorial reply.

Sixty-six of the camels that were purchased by the Government during Buchanan's administration, for the purpose of transporting goods and supplies over the great Western plains, are now at Cape Verde, near San Antonio, Texas, and are offered for sale by the Quartermaster of the Department of the Gulf. Bids for one or more of the animals will be received until the first of March, 1866, when the proposals will be opened at New Orleans, La.

A handbill has been extensively circulated in Dublin calling upon the Fenians not to act rashly, announcing that the day of Ireland's deliverance was fast approaching, and delivering over to the vengeance of the people, when the hour of predicted triumph arrives, all those who have stood by the existing Government. This document purports to be issued by order of the Vigilance Committee.

Francis O. J. Smith, sometime since convicted in one of the courts of Massachusetts of willfully and corruptly procuring one Charles C. Northrop to commit the crime of perjury, appealed to the Supreme Court, which has now affirmed the rulings and verdict given in the lower court.

A call for a public meeting, to be held by those who are in favor of the Monroe doctrine, has been issued for this evening at New York.

The smuggling business on the frontier has been broken up to a great extent by the vigilance of the Government detectives.

The newspapers of New Orleans are filled with advertisements of plantations for sale—mostly by the Sheriff.
